

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

For the Academic Integrity Policy and Appeals Procedure, which addresses a student's responsibilities with respect to academic integrity, the potential consequences of engaging in academic dishonesty, and the procedures that govern allegations of academic dishonesty, see the University's policies page (<https://www.roosevelt.edu/faculty-staff/policies>).

Some graduate programs may have program-specific processes relating to academic integrity. Consult your programs's graduate handbook or website for any program-specific processes.
