INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY, MINOR

The IT minor contains skill-based courses, which would complement nearly any degree. Students who desire specialized technology training to enhance their appeal to employers should consider an IT minor. The IT minor is open to students with majors outside of the Computer Science Department.

Standards
All CST courses must be passed with a grade of C- or higher. Note: Some CST courses have mathematics prerequisites.

Requirements
Five courses in CST are required. At least three of these must be taken at Roosevelt.

All CST courses must be passed with a grade of C- or higher. Note: Some CST courses have mathematics prerequisites.

Introductory Computer Science Course
CST 100    ESSENTIAL COMPUTER SKILLS 3 or CST 101    BEYOND PC ESSENTIALS or CST 115    DIGITAL MEDIACRAFT, A&S or CST 150    COMPUTER SCIENCE I or CST 1XX

Electives
Two CST electives at the 200 level or higher * 6

Advanced Information Technology Courses
Two Advanced CST electives at the 300 level * 6

Total Credit Hours 15

* Courses chosen in consultation with Advisor