

HOSPITALITY AND TOURISM MANAGEMENT, BSHTM

The Manfred Steinfeld School of Hospitality and Tourism Management:
World Class Education in a World-Class City

No better place exists to learn this industry than the Chicago metropolitan area with its wealth of world-class hotels and restaurants and its rich blend of ethnic cultures and cuisines, arts and entertainment, sports and recreation. With offices overlooking several of Chicago's major tourism destinations, the School offers an undergraduate program and the first graduate program in Illinois preparing students for management and leadership careers in the hospitality and tourism industry.

Roosevelt's Hospitality program prepares students in the following concentration areas: lodging management; food and beverage management; meeting, events and exhibition management; sports management; and tourism administration. Other subject areas include casino and club management.

The hospitality industry is a major employer in the Chicago area and throughout the world. Excellent careers are available for those with academic training, work experience, and technology skills, all of which are developed in Roosevelt University's programs. A Roosevelt degree in hospitality and tourism management provides students with a valuable employment and career advantage.

Faculty members are committed to students and their professional growth as they integrate classroom study with the lively metropolitan workplace. Program participants may gain experience through professional partnerships with leading hotels, restaurants, meeting and convention facilities, associations, destination marketing and tourism offices and others.

Manfred Steinfeld is the generous benefactor of Roosevelt University's School of Hospitality and Tourism Management. The program values Mr. Steinfeld's knowledge, experience, and generosity.

The Bachelor of Science in Hospitality and Tourism Management (BSHTM)

The BSHTM is a 120-credit hour undergraduate degree program designed for students of any age who want to pursue a career in hospitality. The program requires successful completion of 54 credit hours of study in hospitality management courses; the University's general education course requirements in humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences; and 30 credit hours of elective courses.

All Hospitality majors are advised by the department and can develop close, mentoring relationships with our faculty from their first semester at Roosevelt.

Freshmen

Traditional-aged freshmen enroll in Hospitality major courses from the first semester so there is no delay in developing a connection to the major field, area of focus, and chosen career path.

Transfer Students

The BSHTM degree allows for transfer credits from community college Hospitality programs as well as transfer from other programs and majors. Except for HOSM 290 METHODS & RESEARCH IN HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT, which must be completed at Roosevelt University, 200-level background hospitality courses may be completed either at Roosevelt or through acceptable transfer work from an approved community college.

most current scheduling information from your academic program. Your program's degree map is reviewed annually and updated as schedules change (although you retain the same course requirements as long as you are continuously enrolled in your degree program).

Always work closely with your academic advisor to understand curriculum requirements and scheduling, as each student's academic plan can look slightly different.
