

EDUCATIONAL STUDIES, MINOR

---

The Education and Youth Studies minor prepares students for graduate school in education and school counseling and work with children and families in government, private industry, adult education, and social services agencies. The Education and Youth Studies minor is not a teacher preparation program, and it does not lead to teacher licensure. Students with majors in other colleges at Roosevelt can choose the minor and obtain advising assistance from professional advisors in the Department of Education.

Standards

At least three of the courses, or 9 credit hours, must be taken at Roosevelt University. All courses must be passed with grades of C- or higher, and a minimum 2.0 overall GPA.

Requirements

Six courses in education (18 credit hours) make up the minor. Three courses are required (see below).

All courses must be passed with grades of C- or higher.
