

SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP, MINOR (FOR BUSINESS MAJORS)

A minor in Social Entrepreneurship from the Heller College of Business will provide students with both the conceptual framework and skills needed to help address critical societal problems. With courses offered most every semester and a curriculum composed of just 12 credit hours, the social entrepreneurship minor offers Business students the opportunity to complement their respective Business majors with specific training in social entrepreneurship. Students will obtain the broad perspective and skills needed to find employment in organizations pursuing social missions.

All courses must be passed with grades of C- or higher with an average of at least 2.0.
