

BUSINESS LAW (BLAW)

BLAW 201 - BUSINESS LAW I

Formerly ACCT 201. Background, development, and institutional setting of controls; economic significance of law as formal agency of social control; law of business contracts; agency principles with emphasis on business ethics. Legal and equitable principles as they relate to business associations: partnerships, limited partnerships, and corporations. How common law is developed and modified by statute, including Uniform Commercial Code.

Credits: 3

Attributes: Legal Studies