INFORMATION SYSTEMS
(INFS)

INFS 330 - MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS
Information processing systems; information technology infrastructure; database and information management; computer networks and telecommunications; information security; enterprise applications; e-commerce; building information systems; fundamental management, strategic, and organizational issues in the use of information systems.
Credits: 3

INFS 390 - SPECIAL TOPICS IN INFORMATION SYSTEMS
Topics of current interest in the area of Information Systems Management. Check class schedule for specific topics and prerequisites by clicking on the red five-digit CRN.
Credits: 3
Prerequisites: MGMT 300 and INFS 330
Course Notes: or consent

INFS 395 - INDEPENDENT STUDY
Students work under the direction of an INFS department faculty member on projects selected by the student and approved by supervising faculty member, department chair, and college dean.
Credits: 1-3
Prerequisites: ACCT 211 and INFS 330 and BLAW 201 and ECON 102 and ENG 102 and MATH 121 and MATH 217
Course Notes: Consent of Instructor and Academic Head

INFS 398 - PROFESSIONAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS INTERNSHIP
A supervised professional learning experience at a business or non-profit site. Must be arranged with internship coordinator and/or program director. Maximum of 3 credit hours can be applied to undergraduate business program.
Credits: 1-3
Attributes: Transformational Service Learning
Prerequisites: ACCT 211 and INFS 330 and BLAW 201 and ECON 102 and ENG 102 and MATH 121 and MATH 217
Course Notes: Internship requirements vary by assignment; consent, is required by the instructor.