ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP, BAOL/PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION, MPA

The Organizational Leadership, BAOL/ MPA program allows undergraduate students to start earning credits toward their Master of Public Administration (MPA) degree by taking graduate level courses during the completion of their undergraduate Organizational Leadership, BAOL. Specifically, students take three graduate-level courses as part of their undergraduate degrees. Once students are admitted to the MPA, the courses will also apply toward completion of the MPA degree. MPA courses are offered in Chicago and online.

An Organizational Leadership degree leads to careers in consulting, employee development, recruitment, healthcare administration, association management, information management, human resources, labor relations, law enforcement, project management, strategic planning, and training, among others. The MPA degree adds the public sector perspective to the student's management skills development process. Understanding the operation of both public and private sector organizations makes the BAOL/MPA graduate a prime candidate for leadership positions in a broad range of organizations in both sectors.

In short, the BAOL/MPA degree saves graduates time and money. At the same time BAOL/MPA graduates make successful management candidates because that have knowledge and skills in specific administrative areas as well as public and private sector processes.

- Major in Organizational Leadership (https://catalog.roosevelt.edu/undergraduate/business/organizational-leadership-baol/)

- Completion of 60 credit hours of undergraduate course work

- Have and maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.0

Your degree map is a general guide suggesting courses to complete each term on the academic pathway to your degree. It is based on the most current scheduling information from your academic program. Your program's degree map is reviewed annually and updated as schedules change (although you retain the same course requirements as long as you are continuously enrolled in your degree program).

Always work closely with your academic advisor to understand curriculum requirements and scheduling, as each student's academic plan can look slightly different.
