

JAZZ OR CONTEMPORARY MUSIC - PIANO, BM

The Contemporary Major will be offered beginning in the Fall 2023 semester.

It is the goal of the Jazz and Contemporary Music program to prepare students who are interested in contemporary American vernacular musics and jazz for 21st-century careers as performers, recording artists, and literate, technically competent musicians.

The program's objectives are to:

- Help each student realize her or his unique voice as a performer and as an arranger/composer.
- Develop students' historical and practical understanding of the richness and diversity of contemporary musical idioms and styles
- Develop musicianship skills and performing ability so that students can conceive and execute musical ideas in a variety of performing situations.
- Foster habits and ideals of social justice consistent with the important role music plays in social, political, and cultural movements as well as Roosevelt University's mission.

The combo sequence is designed so that each group is devoted to a particular style emphasis. Assignments rotate each semester so that over the course of the degree, students will acquire experience in a broad array of contemporary and jazz idioms, and learn important repertory and composers associated with each through the creation of stylistically-faithful improvisations.

Technical and repertory requirements for each semester of applied study are published in the Music Conservatory Handbook (Academic Supplement). These intensify as the student progresses through the program, culminating in the senior recital, which displays the student's creativity, musical and technical abilities, understanding of the historical context and cultural significance of the music being presented, and preparation, rehearsal, and leadership skills.
